

31 August 2016

Request

I would like to enquire if a business called Alladins Cave trading in Albert Street, St Helier, has a Sunday trading permit.

Response

This shop is covered by the 'blanket permit' issued by the Connétable of St Helier for Sundays 13, 20 and 27 November and 4, 11 and 18 December 2016. The permit has been advertised by notice published in the Jersey Gazette on 11 July 2016.

Shops (Regulation of Opening) (Jersey) Regulations 2011 - information accessible by other means

Under Regulation 12(3) of the Shops (Regulation of Opening) (Jersey) Regulations 2011 it is a condition of a general permit that, whenever the shop is open pursuant to the permit, it shall be displayed in or on the shop in a conspicuous place where it can be readily seen by customers.

Under Regulation 15(1) of the Shops (Regulation of Opening) (Jersey) Regulations 2011 a Connétable of a parish may, by notice published in the Jersey Gazette, grant a blanket permit in respect of any special occasion for all shops situated in the parish that are of any kinds specified in the notice.

